POINTS OF PRIDE

Students have the opportunity to earn industry based certifications and college credit through Advanced Placement and Dual Enrollment course offerings, preparing them for success in college and careers.

Our athletic program is noted for district and state titles in multiple sports with athletes continuing into college and professional careers.

Students participate in community outreach activities including Keep Slidell Beautiful, Leaders Against Litter, and an angel tree project to support the Hospice Foundation of the South.

Our students assisted in creating the World War II Monopoly game currently sold at the WWII Museum and stores across the nation.
